

2023 Judicial Endorsements

Commonwealth Partners is proud to endorse candidates for all open seats who share our commitment to upholding the Constitution, defending the rule of law, and applying the law as written:

Judge Carolyn Carluccio for Supreme Court

Judge Carolyn Carluccio was elected to the Montgomery County Court of Common Pleas in 2009. In 2021, her peers unanimously selected her to serve as President Judge of that court.

Judge Carluccio has deep experience as a judge, prosecutor, and defender. She applies the law as written, will not allow politics in the courtroom, and will uphold the rule of law.

Megan Martin for Commonwealth Court

Megan Martin will bring more than 30 years of legal experience to the Commonwealth Court. She served for more than a decade as the Secretary-Parliamentarian for the Pennsylvania Senate, and she previously served as an attorney for the U.S. Navy. Megan believes strongly in the separation of powers, respecting the rule of law, and defending the Constitution.

Judge Harry Smail, Jr. and Maria Battista for Superior Court (2 open seats)

Judge Harry Smail has served on the Westmorland County Court of Common Pleas for more than eight years. He will uphold the law as written and defend the Constitution. Maria Battista brings more than 15 years of experience in criminal, civil, and administrative law. She is a former Assistant District Attorney and served as counsel in the Pennsylvania Departments of Health and State.

